

K-Love provides a pleasant alternative to the often raucous listening choices on the FM band. It is calming and beneficial and any changes to the current arrangement would be harmful to the community. I urge you not to allow new LPFM stations priority over current FM translator services.